- Submit all material in digital format to the Partaloa City Council.

11. Admission of Works.

Photographs will be validated by the Partaloa City Council, which reserves the right not to publish those photographs that do not meet the technical requirements or that are considered unsuitable for the spirit of the contest for various reasons, such as offensive content.

12. Rights.

The authors of the photographs submitted for participation in this contest grant, free of charge, all image rights and the rights of use, dissemination, distribution, public communication, exhibition, and reproduction. This transfer will be made exclusively for promotional or cultural purposes related to the Partaloa City Council.

13 Jury.

The Jury's criteria for selecting the winning photographs for the contest will be quality, originality, creativity, and relevance to the proposed theme.

The jury will be composed of three people, including at least one representative from the Partaloa City Council and one independent photographer.

14 Verdict, awards ceremony, and exhibition.

On August 8 at 9:00 p.m., the jury's decision will be announced at the Partaloa Performing Arts Center, and the prizes will be awarded to the winners by the jury members. In addition, an exhibition with a selection of the participating photographs will be inaugurated. For those unable to attend, information about the winners and the selected photographs will also be available on the Partaloa City Council's official website (www.partaloa.es) and on its social media channels.

15 Prizes.

The contest prizes will be as follows:

- First Prize: €80
